

MTV was able to nab an interview with the stunningly beautiful actress. She said when she was younger she idolized her older brother and his likes became her likes. He was into comic books and G.I. Joe, so of course she shared his interests. Who was her favorite character when she was growing up? Jinx, she isn't sure if it had to do with her costume, but knows for sure Jinx's ninja skills captivated her. When playfully asked if she was disappointed to be playing Lady Jaye instead she responded, "Lady Jaye's a badass. I couldn't really be disappointed with Lady Jaye. She's the one chick in the boys club. She can hold her own. She doesn't get the staff, but she is a weapons specialist. She has that going for her." MTV: The fan response to the "G.I. Joe" trailer seemed overwhelmingly positive. Palicki: It was a pleasant surprise, because this is
