

As Agents of S.H.I.E.L.D. prepares to wind down its LMD arc, we have a sneak peek from next week's episode, "Self Control". The Superior is in a bad way after his battle with Quake during the last ep, but he resists AIDA's attempts to save his life, claiming he'd rather die than become "a thing" like her. Unfortunately for the Inhuman-hating villain, it doesn't look like the stunning android is going to take no for an answer. Check out the clip below, and let us know if you've been enjoying this season of Agents of S.H.I.E.L.D. so far in the comments section.
