

Plot - Texas Chainsaw Massacre 3D is said to indeed be a direct sequel to Tobe Hooper's 1974 original film which follows Heather (Alexandra Daddario), who along with her friends, travel to Texas in order to collect an inheritance. Gunnar Hansen - "It's a true sequel to the original. The opening of the movie is the last scene of the original movie. So it starts right at the beginning," The opening of the movie is the last scene of the original movie and so it starts right at the beginning. In fact, they're using some of the footage of Leatherface, of me, dancing, at the beginning. They're using that footage as the opening shot, I think. I read the script, it looks pretty good. I can say that because I'm extremely critical of the sequels and the remakes. This one, you know, is not what I would have written, but I didn't
