

Launching Sideshow's all-new line of DC Comics Collectibles is The Joker Premium Format Figure, presenting the maniacal archenemy of Batman in stunning detail. Each piece is individually painted and finished to exacting standards, each with its own unique quality and detail that is the trademark of a handcrafted Sideshow Collectibles product. Captured in approximately 1:4 scale, with an intricate real fabric costume that features a fully lined topcoat with pose-able tails. A maniacal villain of Gotham City, the Joker is the archenemy of Batman himself. He lacks even the slightest regard for human life, as his thousands of victims would attest, and he sadistically believes that death and destruction are funny. While his past remains a tangle of mysterious lies, it is believed that the Joker fell - or was pushed - into a chemical vat that left his skin bleached and hair green with a permanent red smile. No matter which version
