

The Walking Dead Season 3 Preview Weekend is now over, but you can check out some features shown on a special episode of The Talking Dead. The first clip is in low-resolution, but takes you on a tour of the prison set, while the second was an exclusive clip featuring the highly-anticipated Michonne. [LOW-RES] Steven Yeun takes Chris Hardwick on a tour of The Prison, which was created by The Walking Dead crew. This second clip features Michonne taking out a few walkers. After the clip aired, Executive Producer David Alpert and The Walking Dead creator Robert Kirkman hinted that the aspirin that Michonne grabs in this scene may not actually be aspirin, although it was unknown if they were joking around. In other behind-the-scenes features, the actress behind Andrea (Laurie Holden) revealed that David Morrissey is "the perfect governor". Are you looking forward to The Walking Dead's third season even more now?

Read more: <http://www.comicbookmovie.com/fansites/TheAlexLynch/news/?a=63294>