

The Walking Dead returns on Valentine's Day weekend, but it doesn't look there's going to be much love in the air for Rick and co., as they formulate a plan to strike back at Negan and his merciless army of Saviours. AMC has now announced that the midseason premiere will be titled "Rock in the Road", and the synopsis suggests that Alexandria and The Kingdom are going to join forces right off the bat (no pun intended). We also have 12 promo images, giving us new looks at some of the major players. The highly anticipated mid-season seven premiere of the #1 show in all of television among adults 18-49, AMC's "The Walking Dead," launches Sunday, February 12th at 9:00 p.m. ET/PT. On the debut episode, "Rock in the Road," Rick and the group are led to a new community where they are introduced to its inhabitants and ruler. A familiar face resurfaces.
