

Yes, we know Negan dispatched more than one character during The Walking Dead's season 7 premiere, but just in case there's anyone that hasn't managed to see the episode yet we're still operating on SPOILER ALERT mode. AMC has released a couple of "Farewell to The Fallen" featurettes, in which both Steven Yeun (Glenn Rhee) and Michael Cudlitz (Abraham Ford) thank their fans for all of their support over the years. It's sad to see these guys go, but the vids also contain a couple of heart-warming and funny moments as some of the other cast members jump in at the end to say their goodbyes. The Walking Dead returns next Sunday night with the season's second episode, "The Well";
