

Did you tune into the premiere of AMC's hit show The Walking Dead last night? Well if you didn't, it seemed like you were the only one. The show's third season kicked off last night and was met with huge ratings numbers. According to TVline's initial reports 10.9 Million viewers tuned it. The show put up huge numbers despite not having Dish Network broadcast it. To give you perspective on it, 7.3 million viewers tuned in to watch the season two premiere. That huge number was followed by almost 9 million viewers for the season two finale. The nearly 11 million earned the show the title of Most watched TV Drama in history. For the latest on The Walking Dead make sure you check back here and CBM. Make sure you check the show out which stars Andrew Lincon, Sarah Wayne Callies, Chandler Riggs, Norman Reedus, Lori Holden, Melissa McBride, Lauren

Read more: <http://www.comicbookmovie.com/fansites/JakeLester/news/?a=68726>