

Not to be out done by the silly Star Wars themed 3D glasses. Marvel will be offering 4 different types of 3D glasses for their upcoming release of The Avengers. The glasses feature the likeness of Captain America, Thor, Iron Man, and The Hulk. Yes, I know the pic is blurry and hard to see. I've been informed that these will not be free give-aways, but rather you'll have to fork over around $5 per pair. So, will you do it? Thanks goes to Avenger8 for the scoop. The Avengers hits theaters on May 4, 2012. SOAL!!!
