

Source: Collider Collider spoke with the gorgeous Leslie Bibb about her new horror project 7500. While discussing the film, they also asked her about upcoming role as Wonder Woman. Bibb plays the Amazonian princess in a segment of Peter and Bobby Farrelly's comedy anthology Movie 43. The short features Jason Sudekis as Batman, Bobby Cannavale (The Other Guys) as a "jacked-up" Batman, Kristen Bell as Supergirl, and John Hodgman as Penguin. The short also features Justin Long as Robin and Uma Thurman as Lois Lane. Here's what Bibb said, she seems either really excited or really confused about the piece. Collider: You're in a new film called Movie 43 from the Farrelly Brothers play...Wonder Woman? Bibb: The Farrelly Brothers did this compilation of these shorts and there's a whole slew of us. Hugh Jackman did one, Gerard Butler, Kate Winslet. Mine is, me and Jason Sudeikis and Justin Long and Bobby

Read more: http://www.comicbookmovie.com/fansites/GraphicCity/news/?a=50390&t=There_Is_A_Justice_League_Movie_Being_Made_Just_Not_The_Justice_League_Movie_Everyone_Wants