

The Rogue One: A Star Wars Story TV spots continue to roll out, and this latest one features a pretty awesome Star Wars Rebels easter egg. As you can see from the image above, one of the Rebel ships amassing for a space battle against the Empire around the 7 second mark appears to be none other than Hera Syndulla's modified VCX-100 light freighter, The Ghost.

This could simply be a different ship of the same model - but these type of things are never done by accident, so even if it isn't supposed to be Hera and her crew, it's almost certainly a little nod to the Disney XD show. Of course, fans are hoping that it is The Ghost, and are even theorizing that the final episode of Star Wars Rebels season 3 will tie-in to the movie by finishing just as this battle is about to commence. What do you guys make of it? Rogue One: A Star Wars Story is set
