

Following their Wonder Woman POP reveals from earlier today, Funko has now provided first looks at figurines for the likes of Spider-Man: Homecoming, Justice League, The Dark Tower, and Westworld. They've only shared concept art for the League (which still gives us a very good idea of what to expect from the final designs), while the Spidey POPS include Peter Parker, Vulture, and an awesome version of that homemade suit we first glimpsed in Captain America: Civil War. Plus, there's pretty much the entire cast of Westworld, as well as The Gunslinger and The Man in Black from The Dark Tower movie. There were other reveals too, which you can check out over at the official Funko website.
