

The film has gone by the titles "Oblivion" and "Horizon," but currently there is no official title for the film. In September it was announced that Jessica Chastain (The Debt) would be the female lead opposite Tom Cruise, but her schedule has become quite busy after having a breakout year. She has been nominated for several awards during this season, and it's put her in high demand. Well, not to worry because lots of high-profile actresses have been auditioning their fannies off just to be a part of this film. Variety's Jeff Sneider and Justin Kroll are reporting that both Olga Kurylenko, and Andrea Riseborough have landed the two female leads in the film. Olga is best known for her role as the sizzling sexy Bond girl in Daniel Craig's second 007 film, Quantum of Solace. According to Variety she auditioned for the same role as Chastain. Competing against Olivia Wilde and Noomi
