

The folks from Total Film recently caught up with the actor behind 'Bane' in Christopher Nolan's The Dark Knight Rises, Tom Hardy. And discussing playing the villain, donning his mask, among other things, check out what he had to say. Reminiscing Nolan calling him, he says... 'Hang on a minute. You're asking me to come round the world with you in a Batman movie, playing a villain, and the only downside to it is I have to wear a mask? Hmmm, let me think. I'll get back to you... No, I'm fucking there, man! Anything you need.'" When asked if Batman will suffer any Back injuries, he says... "Mmmmm... Good lead-in, but all I can say is that Chris has a plan up his sleeve that's not at all disappointing. And that is a definite choice that's watertight in every respect. I think Bane's fucking cool so I'm really excited to play him. It's not
