

Muses the site, "You'd think after spending ten years playing a comic book character, an extra few years playing crimefighter would be the furthest thing from Welling's mind - but it's not, he's up for playing a superhero again (you'll recall he tested for Superman Returns a couple of years ago; if he had gotten it, he would've been playing Clark Kent a lot longer). Guess you stick with what you know. And like. And enjoy. Don't know what film, if any one in particular, Marvel is looking at Welling for but they do have film adaptations of Deathlok, Runaways and Doctor Strange in the works. If it's one of those three, I think the safe bet is Welling is being considered for Strange. Be interesting to know if Warner Bros, who are in bed with DC, are courting Welling - our contact didn't know." The piece also mentions Welling as a
