

2011 was a pretty good year for movies. Harry Potter and the Deathly Hallows - Part 2, Drive, X-Men: First Class, The Tree of Life, Rise of the Planet of the Apes, Mission: Impossible – Ghost Protocol and Attack the Block are just a few films that received critical acclaim from a lot of critics and fans. Now, if we look at the movies coming out in 2012, it is safe to say that it will be a BIG year. Below, I've listed my top 15 most anticipated films of this year, featuring mostly the ones we write about here on the site (comic book, fantasy, science fiction and some action films). Let's get started! 15. MEN IN BLACK 3 - Let me start by saying that I really didn't like that first trailer. At all. It looked like a TV film, and not a $200 million blockbuster. But still, I'm very much
