

There have been rumblings about a teaser trailer for Transformers: The Last Knight for a while now, but it won't be attached to Fantastic Beasts and Where to Find Them. Instead, we have an IMAX featurette which sees Michael Bay show off the first footage from the movie.

Unfortunately, most of that is just behind the scenes action as there's absolutely no sign of the Autobots, Decepticons, or Dinobots. Set to be released on June 23rd next year, Transformers: The Last Knight will feature the return of Mark Wahlberg as Cade Yeager as well as new roles for Isabela Moner and Jerrod Carmichael. With Bay back in the director's chair, the screenplay for the movie was written by Iron Man's Art Marcum and Matt Holloway along with Ken Nolan (Black Hawk Down). Plot details are currently being kept under wraps. What do you think of this new look at the movie? Be sure to share your thoughts in the usual place.
