

The following clips from Asylum of The Daleks feature The Doctor, Amy and Rory getting captured by the Daleks, as well as the gang confronting the parliament for the first time. Although these clips don't feature much we haven't seen before, I also brought you the prequel webisodes called "Pond Life", which detail just exactly what dreadful thing has happened to the lovely couple, however it may come as a spoiler to some if they want to be completely surprised. These prequels take place shortly before the Doctor Who premiere, which is scheduled to air at 7:20 PM on BBCOne and 9PM Eastern on BBCAmerica. Asylum of The Daleks clips.
