

R.I.P.D. just recently wrapped filming and already a source has contacted Flixist with some gloomy news on the film. Flixist explains, "My source described the film as a $200 million train wreck that is a Men in Black wannabe. Ouch! The film was edited for five months, which is never a good sign. They must really have been digging for decent footage or crafting a masterpiece; we'll find out which soon enough." Of course take all rumors with a grain of salt, but if the news is true it would be a major blow to Ryan Reynolds. He is still trying to shake off the disaster that was last summer's Green Lantern. R.I.P.D., will be released in theaters June 28, 2013, also stars Jeff Bridges, Marisa Miller, Mary-Louise Parker, and Stephanie Szostak.
