

As you can see one pic is blurred and one is taken from behind, but these pics do give us a fair idea of the costume Traue will be sporting as Faora. Updated with the below pic which gives us a much better, although still distant, look at the character. These pics also seem to confirm that there will be more villains for Supes to contend with aside from Faora and Zod as Traue is flanked by guys in mo-cap suits. What's interesting is that Michael Shannon would seem to be getting some CG makeovers with his General Zod costume, while Faora seems to be suited up the old fashioned way. Here is someone else in one of those mo-cap suits. Shannon's stunt double? Many thanks to the guys over at the Man Of Steel Facebook page for once again being the first online with some great spy pics. By TwitterButtons.com
