

Obviously if you haven't seen Captain America yet you won't want to watch the final scene from the movie(I skipped over it), but anyway whether you watch it or skip it be sure to check out the very brief tease for The Avengers after it.. At first I thought some of those flashing images at the beginning might have been new but apparently not. Ah well, I'm sure this will tide us over until Marvel decide to release that full teaser. Here are some screen caps.. By
