

If you were hypothetically offered a role in Ghostbusters 3... would you take the role? Let's say you're [playing] sort of the dissolute son of Egon, the Harold Ramis character, and you're kind of like John Candy in Splash, you're kind of a mess. But it turns out you're a natural ghost-whisperer, a natural psychic. But here's the thing: Bill Murray's not going to be in this movie, and probably not happy that you are. But you get to be in a major role, in a major movie and one of the greatest franchises of all time. Would you do it? - Transcribed by IO9.com John Hodgman is best known as a hilarious correspondent for John Stewart's The Daily Show. He is also known as PC in his "I'm a PC and I'm a Mac" commercial with the actor Justin Long as his nemesis Mac. This isn't the first time that Hodgman
