

It isn't much, but Joe Cornish revealed this weekend at Kapow-Con (Via BLEEDING COOL) that he and Edgar Wright recently handed in the second draft of their script for Ant-Man. Here is an excerpt from BLEEDING COOL's report: Speaking this afternoon at Kapow, Joe Cornish has revealed that he and Edgar Wright delivered the "second draft" of Ant Man just two days ago. That's one more hurdle jumped – or if I know Wright and Cornish, leapt. Ant-Man will be directed by Edgar Wright, but currently has n release date or actors signed on for any roles. We can most likely expect Ant-Man news some time after Marvel Studio's big superhero team up movie, The Avengers. UPDATE:When asked by BLEEDING COOL'S Brendon Connelly if the story was based of any comic arcs, specifically Robert Kirkman's Ireedemable Ant-Man, Cornish replied with definitely not. Special thanks to CBM's own Skinny Glasses for the
