

The following is taken from a Star Wars themed burlesque show taking place at The Vanguard in Newton, NSW Australia this week through November. It features beautiful women performing as most of your favorite Star Wars characters and is very sexy indeed..for the most part. I am slightly disturbed by the C-3PO and Tusken Raider ones! Anyway, have a looksee.. Star Wars Burlesque from Tenderloins on Vimeo. I'm thinking the Slave Leia chick might be a firm favorite. Catch the show this week up until November 27th.
