

Speaking on Wednesday's The Tonight Show With Jay Leno about her role as Martha Kent in the recently titled Man of Steel, the actress refused to reveal any more information about the upcoming movie, but did comment on the secrecy surrounding the project and her huge excitement for it. "I'm not allowed to talk about it. It's top secret. Of course, there is a lot of secrecy these days, with the Internet and everything, and rumors get started, so I had to read the script under lock and key in a room. You go to the offices, and it's a locked door and the curtains are drawn, and so, that was the time I had." "I'm going to be in one of those huge movies. I can't wait to see it already. I'm kind of amazed." Starring Henry Cavill as Superman, Amy Adams as Lois Lane, Kevin Costner as Jonathan Kent, Diane Lane

Read more: http://www.comicbookmovie.com/fansites/joshw24/news/?a=35210&t=VIDEO\_Diane\_Lane\_On\_The\_Secrecy\_And\_Excitement\_Surrounding\_iMan\_Of\_Steeli