

IGN has gotten the exclusive first look at Telltale's The Walking Dead video game. The game will be based on a new set of survivors and will not follow any stories from the AMC television show. The main character will be Lee who is let go by the police after the Zombie Apocalypse starts. On his journey Lee find Clementine who will serve as Lee's moral compass. Check the trailer out below that sets up Clementine's story. More The Walking Dead: The Game Videos The unfortunate thing about the trailer is it does not offer up any game play footage. Game play footage will be revealed on Monday March 19th so make sure you check back here at CBM to see the latest on The Walking Dead video game.
