

Following last week's story trailer, NetherRealm Studios has released some new gameplay footage from Injustice 2 which gives us a first look at Robin taking on Batman, in addition to brief shots of some other characters kicking seven shades out of each other. Though it was all-but confirmed anyway, this makes it official: the Robin that will feature in this game will indeed be Damian Wayne. Some more footage was screened during a Twitch livestream earlier today and was captured by the YouTube channel GameplayOnly - Trailers & Gameplay. Those vids provide a glimpse of Batman taking on both Atrocitus and himself, and you can check them out right HERE. I'm #Batman's Son! So excited to confirm that I'm playing Damian Wayne aka "Robin" in @InjusticeGame. #Injustice2 <https://t.co/JU65xnBb1J> — Scott Porter (@ScottPorter) January 25, 2017 The Lines Have Been Redrawn. The line between hero and villain has become blurred as the most epic battle in the DC universe rages on in Injustice 2. While Batman has
