

While I won't write anything specific about what we saw, I will say a little....if you were wondering if Tom Hardy could pull off Bane, any doubts will be erased after you see the footage. If you were nervous the Nolan's couldn't raise the bar any higher after The Dark Knight, trust me, they have, and your jaw will hit the ground a few times while watching the footage. - Steve 'Frosty' Weintraub The rave reviews for the prologue keep on coming in, but the hiccup is still Bane's voice. When I asked Variety's Josh Dickey what he thought of the voice he said, "Yes, the Bane voice was indecipherable. That will be fixed by the time it hits theaters, I assure you. The accent is freakish." Some of the reports came in that the accent was of a Russian sound, while others said it most certainly was a British accent.
