

At one point when Guillermo del Toro was working on The Hobbit with Peter Jackson there was talk of making a film that would bridge The Hobbit with The Lord of the Rings. Those plans were abandoned, but when Peter Jackson was discussing the "bridge film" in 2006 with Ain't It Cool News he had a way of bringing Viggo back. He said, "You could even get into Gollum's sneaking into Mordor and Aragorn protecting The Shire. That's what we'd do. Love to work with Viggo again." Movies.com: Has Peter Jackson asked you to return to Middle Earth in the Hobbit movie in any capacity? Mortensen: At one point, the producers asked if I would do it and I said sure if Aragorn is supposed to be in the bridge story because he's not in The Hobbit. I would rather do it than see someone else do it, but I've never
