

The folks over at Batman-News have poured over a press kit sent out by Warner Bros., and it contains some very interesting new casting details about Justice League! For starters, Jesse Eisenberg's return as Lex Luthor is now 100% official. Just like with Suicide Squad (where he didn't appear), Lex 's role has only been rumoured up until now, but it makes a lot of sense that he'll make his presence felt here. That's not all though as it's also mentioned that Diane Lane will be back as Martha &quot;MARTHA!&quot; Kent. I'm pretty sure that too hasn't been confirmed before now, but once again, her being here adds up. However, here's where things get really interesting; Connie Nielsen is set to reprise the role of Queen Hippolyta, a character she'll first play in Wonder Woman. If reports that Justice League kicks off with a flashback to the Amazonians, Atlanteans, and humans dividing three Mother Boxes between them, it could be there that she makes a

Read more: https://www.comicbookmovie.com/justice\_league/warner-bros-confirms-lex-luthor-s-return-in-justice-league-and-a147675