

Announced immediately after last week's winter finale of Agents of S.H.I.E.L.D., all six episodes of Marvel's Slingshot webseries have now been released online. The shorts range from about 3 and-a-half to over 6 minutes in length, and focus on a top-secret mission undertaken by Elena "Yo-To" Rodriguez, AKA Slingshot (Natalia Cordova). Of course, we also get appearances from plenty of other AOS characters. Check out the webisodes below, and let us know what you think. Agents of S.H.I.E.L.D. will return with a new episode on January 10.
