

Source: THR ROSA from Jesús Orellana on Vimeo. Synopsis: Rosa is “an epic sci-fi short film that takes place in a post-apocalyptic world where all natural life has disappeared. From the destruction awakes Rosa, a cyborg deployed from the Kernel project, mankind’s last attempt to restore the earth’s ecosystem. Rosa will soon learn that she is not the only entity that has awakened and must fight for her survival. This short film is super hot right now in Hollywood. Borys Kit of THR reports that Spanish comic book artist Jesus Orellana taught himself the program and made the short film with literally no budget! The short has been at several festivals including the Seattle International Film Festival, then SITGES, Screamfest, Toronto After Dark, and many others, all to rave reviews. Orellana is signed to IAM Entertainment, and is currently fielding interest from all the top Hollywood agencies, several producers, and a couple of studios. Orellana's
