

The last time we saw Wentworth Miller's Leonard Snart (or a real life version anyway) was in the penultimate episode of Legends of Tomorrow's season one finale, where he sacrificed himself to rescue his teammates that had been captured by Vandal Savage. That made the announcement of Captain Cold's return to the Arrowverse a bit of a headscratcher but it seems the timetraveling nature of Legends will lead to Reverse-Flash plucking a version of Cold from the timeline that never set foot on the Waverider. Speaking to Entertainment Weekly on the revival of Prison Break, Miller also commented on Snart's return. "My sense is that if Snart comes back into the storyline via his present day incarnation, then he's a straight up villain. He hasn't gone on that first season Legends of Tomorrow journey yet, so when we meet him again — quote unquote alive in 2017 — I imagine that he's going to be much like when we first met him
