

Sources close to the project have told me that Columbia Pictures is circling Aziz Ansari for the long, long, long gestured Ghostbusters 3. - courtesy of bloody-disgusting Outside of Parks and Recreations Aziz has been stealing scenes with small , but hilarious roles in Get Him to the Greek and Funny People. The later, surprisingly not as funny as the title would have you believe. But Aziz had a few memorable scenes as the raunchy stand-up comedian named, Randy. I would certainly like to see him become one of the ghostbusters. Which is a project that is still waiting for Bill Murray to sign off on. Bill actually is one of the owners of the rights, and he has to give the sequel the okay before anything can move forward. Obviously if the script isn't up to Bill's tastes then they shouldn't do it. So far the speculation is that the third movie will
