

Before I go into my reasoning make sure you read this most recent interview that the actor had in which he discusses Sin City 2. The following is an excerpt from an interview Clive had with comingsoon.net CS: The first time I met you was at the press conference for "Derailed," which was six years ago now, and after that press conference, I asked you about doing "Sin City 2." Owen: Still? CS: Now it seems like Robert's back on board and they've got a new screenwriter working on it. Owen: It seems like it, yeah, yeah. CS: Do you think at this point you'd still do the movie and still do the role even though it's six years later? Owen: I don't know; I don't know quite what the plans are now. Like you say, I think every year since we made the original one I'm asked about, "Are they going to do another one?" But I
