

There are no new episodes of The Flash and Legends of Tomorrow the week beginning February 12th, but we do still have Supergirl and Arrow to look forward to. In the former, Superman villain Metallo will return as we look set to learn more about the Luthor family in flashbacks. Does that mean we'll get to see Lex or Lionel? That remains to be seen, but you have to believe they'll be referenced in some way. Over in Arrow, we're finally going to learn more about Wild Dog's history as we take a break from Oliver Queen's time in Russia, something which may prove to be frustrating now that Talia al Ghul has arrived on the scene! Still, Rene has proved to be one of the more compelling new members of Team Arrow during season five, so getting to spend more time with the vigilante promises to be a lot of fun...
