

At last year's San Diego Comic-Con, Clique Clack caught up with Supernatural actor Mark Sheppard, where they asked whether he'd be re-teaming with his Firefly & Dollhouse director, Joss Whedon, being that he's helming the assembly of The Avengers. And Sheppard responded by only revealing his interest to do so. However, at this year's SDCC, when asked again, his sly response hinted at the possibility prospering. While it could be looked too much into, watch the very end of the video interview below. If true, the role could evidently be minor, though with the casting of actress Amanda Righetti as a "SHIELD Agent," and the secondary villains anonymous, who knows. Sheppard has appeared on several TV shows, including Chuck & Battlestar Galactica. Marvel's The Avengers picks up when an unexpected enemy emerges that threatens global safety and security. And Nick Fury, director of the international peacekeeping agency known as S.H.I.E.L.D., finds
