

Occupy Wall Street is a movement that began 30 days ago in Lower Manhattan and has spread to many other cities. Hell it's spread to Ireland! If I want to go buy comics I currently have to navigate past "Occupy Dame Street". Anyway, the movement seeks to bring attention to banking deregulation, Wall Street bonuses and other practices that supporters say threaten the prospects of the working- and middle class. And director Christopher Nolan may be using this as a backdrop for scenes in TDKR. From The LA Times.. Under its code name "Magnus Rex," the Warner Bros./Legendary Pictures production will arrive in the nation's biggest city for 14 days starting Oct. 29, according to a casting notice recently issued by producers. And, according to a person briefed on actors' schedules who requested anonymity because production details were being kept confidential, cast members have been told the shoot could include scenes shot at
