

Here's a nice Sunday surprise for DC fans. Games Radar (via Batman News) has debuted a brand new image from Zack Snyder's Justice League movie, featuring three members of the team (Gal Gadot's Wonder Woman, Jason Momoa's Aquaman and Ray Fisher's Cyborg) preparing to take the fight to some sure-to-be formidable foes. The area they're about to do battle in looks similar to the Kryptonian ships from Man of Steel, but there are plenty of other possibilities. Does this new still mean that highly anticipated trailer might be close behind? Check it out below. Justice League stars Henry Cavill as Superman/Clark Kent, Ben Affleck as Batman/Bruce Wayne, Gal Gadot as Wonder Woman/Diana Prince, Jason Momoa as Aquaman/Arthur Curry, Ezra Miller as The Flash/Barry Allen, Ray Fisher as Cyborg/Victor Stone, Amy Adams as Lois Lane, Amber Heard as Mera, J.K. Simmons as Commissioner James Gordon, and Willem Dafoe as Vulko.
