"On my lists of things to do in my life—I mean, I campaign for it—is, I just want to play a superhero at some point," the No Strings Attached actress revealed while at Sundance. "I got the guns! With superheroes you have to have this tickle of humor in there and you have to be a really great actor and also kick ass. And I'm fine with kicking a guy's ass. I'll be honest, I think I'd make a great Wonder Woman. So if anyone out there is listening..." What about you guys? Are you listening or are you ignoring Lake? What do you think of the idea?
