

Courtesy of philly.com Would Jude Law like to return to the role of Dr. Watson if there is another sequel? "It's not up to me, obviously, but I don't see why not. I love working with Robert and Guy and the whole team. I'm a big fan of the books, and there's obviously huge amounts of material to dip into and use and be inspired by, so we'll see. "If everyone else is as enthusiastic and happy for us to carry on doing it, then we'll probably carry on doing it." His thoughts on the new movie: "Literally, it felt like there was no gap. We went into it with a little more confidence and swagger. We were very proud of the last one, but when you pick up a canon like that, it's hard to know how the world will respond." "And [audiences] were really enthusiastic, and appreciative." A lot of high expectations for the sequel
