

Last month, I had the chance to sit down with X-Men: Apocalypse star Lana Condor for HeyUGuys.com, and in the video below, the actress talks about everything from deleted scenes to what's next for Jubilee. Asked whether she would be interested in following the comics by making the hero a vampire, the actress responded: "I think it would be cool, if there were to be more films, to have her as a vampire. I don't do well with blood, so we'll go down that road if it comes, but that would be fun. I want fangs!" That would be fun to see, but surely Jubilee is actually better suited to New Mutants? "I don't really know what New Mutants is going to be about. I've read the blogs and stuff, but I definitely would be interested if they asked me. That would be awesome. Hire me, please!" If Jubilee does factor into the X-Men: Apocalypse sequel, the actress has some ideas about where the

Read more: https://www.comicbookmovie.com/x-men/x-men\_apocalypse/x-men-apocalypse-star-lana-condor-talks-vampire-jubilee-a146257