

Having recently exited New Regency in order to enter into a producing deal with 20th Century Fox, Hutch Parker has joined The Wolverine team as a producer reports Deadline. He joins Lauren Shuler Donner in this capacity (via his Hutch Parker Entertainment banner) on the James Mangold directed comic book adaptation. Fans of the original X-Men movies should be pleased by this news as Parker also served as a producer on the original movies. The Japan set sequel to the critically panned X-Men Origins: Wolverine is rumoured to involve Wolverine taking on the Silver Samurai and is currently set for a July 26th, 2013 release.
