

Talking to IGN Movies, the actress has revealed some new details about her role as Angel Salvadore in X-Men: First Class. Below are a few excerpts, but you can read much more by heading on over to the site by clicking on the link at the bottom of the page. On Her Experiences While Filming: It's been great. I've never spent so much time in London, and I really love it. Pinewood's great and the crew is fantastic. It's nice to be away. It's different when you're out of your environment and you don't go home every day. It's nerve-wracking to be on a production this big, in a way. Sometimes you'll have these moments of realisation, where you're doing a crazy stunt or, you know, Kevin Bacon's walking by. But the cool thing is that everyone's really nice. You could be a bit freaked out but everyone's so wonderful and different, so
